Finding Peace, Power & Passion

Website: <http://pathconner.com>

"A passionate, loving, caring and spiritual being, Pat was one of my Thai language students during her stint in the Peace Corps. I found her culturally sensitive and willing to extend herself to others. I'm fortunate to know her and highly recommend her book."

Thayathep Piroonla-ong,
Principal Clinical Research Associate

"I had the good fortune of working with Pat at an American School in Kuwait. She was a beloved school counselor. Everyone confided in her: students, teachers and parents. Pat has a patient, loving way of listening and became a valued member in the local community. She is a good friend and resolute professional with an infectious laugh. It's very special to have a friend with whom I can share deepest soul issues and laughter."

Trish Swanson,
Veteran Teacher and Entrepreneur
UV Sol Beads

"Pat is a beautiful lady and I applaud her for all she has done to challenge herself by stepping outside the box, giving up her life comforts to provide volunteer work in Thailand. She has touched many lives, young and old."

Lana Robinson, School Bookkeeper
Little Flower Catholic School

"When I'm in Pat's presence I experience grace. Over the years she has met many personal challenges with conviction, always trusting spirit. She demonstrates this in everything she does – teaching seminars, classes and in her writings. Participants take from her messages important keys to life and a willingness to walk through their own challenges. I look forward to her future creations because everything she does gives me glimpses of heaven and peace in the present."

Patricia F. Winnie, Esq.,

"Pat Holland Conner is an accomplished writer. In 2004 she won the TMCC Writer's Conference Sundance Scholarship for Outstanding Writing. She was up against a group of fine writers and her work outshined them all. She demonstrates drive, positivity and passion, a refreshing experience in today's stress-driven culture."

Kathy Berry,
TMCC Writer's Conference Manager

"It was my pleasure to invite Pat Conner as guest speaker for our 'Women of Courage' workshop. She inspires, teaches and adds humor to her presentations. I've attended other workshops she has facilitated over the years and have been enriched by her compassionate teachings. She gracefully embraces love and integrity."

Marilyn Murphy,
Senior Ministries & Spiritual Director
St. Albert the Great Catholic Church

"Pat loves life and makes the world a better place to be."

Reverend Marjory Dawson

"Pat embodies a unique combination of creative, intuitive gifts. Seeing her own life as a work in progress, she opens her mind and heart to learn and grow with each challenge – a process not often easy or without profound pain. I admire her willingness to share personal stories of hurt, frustration and growth, told unabashedly and with kind humor. She has the fit of talking with you, not to you, with real words coming out of the experience, offered generously. A rare gift!"

Mary Rini, Owner
The Spiritual Element
Center for Transformation

"Pat has a way of drawing in the audience with her stories, both as a writer and workshop presenter. She has a warm, giving nature and an open, affable style. When interacting with others, she truly has the other person's best interest at heart. Her book, like her presentations, pulls the reader into her inner circle, allowing them to experience their own innermost thoughts, feelings and triumphs."
