

Sample Interview Questions for Pat Holland Conner

❖ ❖ ❖
Author of Doorways to Significance
Finding Peace, Power & Passion

Website: <http://pathconner.com>

1. Early on in life, you found people responding to you differently. How did that affect your childhood? What residual affects did it have in early adulthood?
2. What were you angry at most and how did you learn to release or transform that anger?
3. When did you begin to realize the concept of significance was borne within your negative life experiences? What does the word “significance” mean to you?
4. What were your strategies for remaining flexible enough to hold onto and pursue your goals?
5. Why at the age of 50 did you decide to join the Peace Corps?
6. How did that experience affect your life? Would you recommend others pursue a similar experience?
7. When did you first experience a sense of belonging, of being part of a community?
8. Do you see many people struggling today with the same issues with which you struggled? As a society, is there hope for eliminating those struggles?
9. Why did you decide to write this book? How did you determine the foundation and perspectives about what you wanted to say?
10. Who will benefit most from reading your book?
11. What one key principle would you like readers to take away with them?
12. Tell us about your upcoming books and projects.